General Announcement 2018_5
Takata Alpha Airbag Recall Search

Dear Valued Clients,

JEVIC is pleased to announce our new website service “Takata Alpha Airbag Recall Search”.

Effective from 21 May 2018, the New Zealand Transport Agency (NZTA) have instructed Border Inspection Organisations that they are required to check all vehicles for outstanding recalls on Takata Alpha Airbags.

In response to Client feedback, from Monday 25 June 2018 the results of Takata Alpha Airbags recall checks will be provided on the JEVIC website;
<http://jevic.com/>.

Please enter the original VIN / Chassis into the search section.

Importers, logistics suppliers, customs brokers and end users will now be able to check Takata Alpha Airbag recall status of vehicles which have undergone the NZTA border inspection by JEVIC.

Please contact your local JEVIC office should you have any questions.

Regards

JEVIC
